MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1902.

The men who hoped to see Judge Little jump into the Governorship discussion with a whoop and a roar are sadly disappointed. Judge Little stands for the peace program as down every thoughtful citizen, and shows those self-contained and sensible qualities which cause citizens of the Territory to look to him as a proper man for Chief Executive.

T. McCants Stewart speaks for himself. Those citizens who have taken the trouble to follow the Advertiser's course toward Mr. Stewart for the past two years are well aware that Mr. Thurston's morning organ is thrice guilty of the charge of dishonesty and ineptness which is lodged against it. The Stewart incident is merely one of many which show the spirit in which Mr. Thurston's paper, which is also the official organ of Governor Dole, deals with public men and public measures. It has no respect for personal honor nor personal integrity. It charges every man who opposes its bludgeoned tactics with being a renegade and seeks to destroy whom it cannot control. Its motives are dishonest and its methods of operation of the lowest order known to political activity. These have become self-evident facts to citizens of this Territory who have followed the morning paper's course. This is what Doleism has stood for in this Territory as expressed by its official organ.

THE PROGRAM OF PEACE.

Advice received in the transport Thomas mail prove beyond doubt President Roosevelt's determination to secure peace in Hawaii through the selection of new leaders and directors of Territorial affairs.

None but those bitterly prejudiced will oppose this determination which means so much for the advancement of this Territory and unity among its citizens for the best interests of all concerned. What is known as the Dole faction has expressed its equally positive determination to fight the President's plan, thereby indicating that they prefer the eternal wrangle of the past to the program of peace and progress. Their attitude speaks for itself and will unquestionably serve to educate the President as to their motives.

The two men under consideration for the Governorship are Col. Samuel Parker and Judge Gilbert P. Little who are personal friends and stand for the liberalizing of local government on American lines. Col. Parker represents the American sentiment of the Hawaiian-Americans and has a strong following among all classes. Judge Little from his intimate knowledge and experience of American methods gained through his public career in the States represents the sentiment of men who believe an American born citizen is needed at the head of affairs, and he as well as Parker has strong and honest support from all classes irrespective of the place of their nativity. The Little and Parker support is to all intents and purposes one and the same. It is the solid sentiment which demands an end of the dictatorship and its consequent bickering in this American Territory. This sentiment is not ruled by race prejudice or personal animosity. George R. Carter is unquestionably slated as Secretary of the Territory and while he is supposed by his enemies to represent the bitterest end of the Dole regime, and while there are others of his so-called faction who would meet with more general approval, it is his duty as a citizen as it is the duty of every citizen to do whatever may come in his way to carry out any and all measures inaugurated with a view to advancing the interests of this Territory and the contentment of its citizens.

The program of peace will be carried out and the blockade will be relegated to the past. Under President Roosevelt's administration this Territory is going forward or the President will know why.

A KILO VIEW.

With a Hawaiian Legislature at home, and a Hawaiian Delegate in Congress it is not even a remote probability that President Roosevelt will appoint a Hawaiian as Governor of this Territory. Those who are loudest in their support of Sam Parker for this office by bearing this fact in mind will protect themselves from disappointment. Such a long sided distribution of official power would not be along the traditional American lines, which the President has said he hopes to see flourish in Hawaii.

BUSINESS ETHICS.

[Hilo Tribune.]

Two days before Judge Humphreys' first decision in the Kamalo sugar case, a representative of one of the leading business houses in Honolulu said to a gentleman from the Coast, who was insisting that the plain terms of a written contract should be observed: "O you will find that you are not doing business on the Coast." The plain inference was that a lower plane of business ethics was satisfactory in Hawaiian Courts, which on the Coast would not stand the lime light of justice.

After the thunderbolt from the bench by Judge Humphreys, the Honolulu firm readily agreed to pay a few thousand dollars for the privilege of tearing up the contract and the Coast man was right or wrong in locating the cause of the sudden elevation of the plane of business ethics in Hawaii. It is unquestionably true that Judge Humphreys, since his accession to the bench has done much toward the purification of business ethics as well as improving the tone of Territorial justice.

SUGAR LOBBY IN TROUBLE.

[New York Journal.]

The strength of the popular sentiment in favor of a reduction of the duties on Cuban sugar is illustrated by the fact that the protected interests have felt it necessary to advance a self-measure of their own. Instead of lowering the duties, they propose to pay a bounty to the Cuban planters. The scheme is absurd, of course. The American people showed ten years ago that they would not tolerate for any length of time the payment of bounties even to American producers. To ask them to distribute $7,000,000 a year in cash among the owners of plantations in a foreign country is stretching sentiment a little further than its tenable strength will warrant. But the fact that it has been thought necessary to advance such a proposition is a proof of the straits of the sugar lobby.

DIDN'T DESERT CLIENTS.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—One hour before the departure of the Alameda on December 4 last, I filed in the Supreme Court a brief carefully prepared in the case of Harkfeld & Co. vs. Grossman and publicly in open court announced that I submitted the case on that brief. Dr. Grossman was not then aware of what I had done but his business was not neglected. In the Kamalo case, I have done more than my share of the work and I associated McCants Stewart with me so that he could attend to the examination of witnesses. When I leave these islands if I ever do for good, no client of mine will suffer. I am not perfect by any means but I do claim to have an honorable professional record behind me that will defend me and answer all attempts at mud slinging and slander so far as my career as a professional man is concerned.

Yours sincerely,
GEO. A. DAVIS.

AT THE BOWLING ALLEY.

GLUCOSE COMBINE

New York, Feb. 1.—It is definitely stated by the Herald that the glucose starch combination has now reached a stage at which the promoters feel assured of its success. The underwriting has been completed, and it is believed the deal will be closed before the end of February.

At that time unless the unforeseen occurs, the Corn Products Company will be organized in New Jersey, with a capital stock of $80,000,000. It will own a majority of the stock of the National Starch Company, the Starch Trust, the Glucose Sugar Refining Company, and the Illinois Sugar Refining Company of Peking, Ill. It also will own outright the properties of the Pope Glucose Company, for which cash will be paid and a minority interest in the New York Glucose Company, in which most Standard Oil capitalists are interested.

About $4,000,000 in cash has been raised by the sale of the new stock, and the underwriting was subscribed three times over.

The combination will have a daily capacity of 250,000 bushels of corn. It is expected that much of the export price-cutting will be done away with entirely.

Mrs. "Jennie June" Crady, "Mother of Clubs," the woman who had done so much for women, had none around when she died, except a trained nurse. Mrs. Crady's last appearance at Sorosis, which she founded nearly thirty-four years ago, was early in November. She had an attack of heart failure there and was carried home. Death came on December 23. Just four days after her 73d birthday. Mrs. Crady was a pioneer newspaper woman and served on many papers in many capacities during her forty-five years of activity.

LATE CAPTAIN LEARY

IN MEMORIAM CIRCULAR OF THE LOYAL LEGION

Received By Captain John Ross,
Companion of California Commandery --- Leary Was Known Here.

Captain John Ross, Companion of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, has received from the California Commandery the regulation in Memoriam circular of Richard Phillips Leary, Captain, U. S. Navy, who died at Chelsea, Mass., Friday, December 27, 1901. Captain Leary was known to many besides Captain Ross, whom he succeeded in the Sangamon. An account of his action in Samoa from his own lips was published in Honolulu the morning after he landed here from that group and made interesting reading. The memorial circular of Captain Leary's Commandery reads as follows:

Richard Phillips Leary was born at Baltimore, Maryland, November 3, 1842. He entered the United States Naval Academy, September 20, 1859, and by reason of the exigencies of war, was graduated as Ensign, U. S. Navy, October 1, 1863, after a course of three years only. He was attached to the U. S. monitor Sangamon in the blockading squadron off Charleston, South Carolina, and saw continuous and varied service during 1863 to 1865. Being ordered to the U. S. S. Canandaigua, he served with the European squadron, 1865 to 1868, and during the twenty years following was almost continually at sea in different parts of the world. He was promoted Master, May 16, 1868; Lieutenant, February 21, 1867; Lieutenant Commander, March 12, 1868; Commander, June 2, 1882; and Captain, June 19, 1897.

He was in command of the U. S. S. Adams in the harbor of Apia, Samoa, during the revolution of 1888, and by his firm and decided action prevented what might have proved serious complications with a foreign power. For this action he received the thanks of the President and Secretaries of State and the Navy.

During the Spanish war, 1898-99, he commanded the San Francisco, the flag ship of the North Atlantic patrol squadron, and was shelved by one of the Spanish batteries at Havana. His well known executive ability caused his appointment as Governor of Guam in 1899, when that island became a dependency of the United States, and he conducted its affairs in the most admirable manner until compelled by ill health to ask that he be relieved.

He never entirely recovered his health, but passed away at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Chelsea, Massachusetts, on the very day of his promotion to the rank of Rear Admiral. He was elected a Companion of the First Class in the Commandery of California (No. 807.) May 31, 1882; insignia No. 1217.

To his relatives we extend the sympathy and condolence of his Companions of the Loyal Legion.

The Commandery of the State of California.

W. R. SMEDBERG,
Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army, Recorder.

OUTLAWS LANDED

Pittsburg, Jan. 31.—Edward Biddle is dying in the jail at Butler; John Biddle is riddled with buckshot and in a precarious condition, and Mrs. Peter K. Soffel is lying in the hospital with a self-inflicted wound in the breast. This is the sequel of the sensational escape of the Biddle brothers from the Allegheny County Jail, aided by Mrs. Soffel, wife of the jail warden, on Thursday morning.

PRICE OF A SERMON.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 30.—The cash value of Baptist sermons in Virginia has been officially fixed at $1.25 each. A board of arbitration, composed of Baptist clergymen, today decided that the Norfolk and Western Railroad must pay Rev. W. P. Hines of the Baptist church at Portsmouth, $250 for 202 sermons lost by agents and employees of the company. Dr. Hines told the railway people that the loss of his best sermons would place him in an embarrassing position and he asked to be reimbursed. The company declined to pay $50 apiece for the lot and suggested that the matter be settled by arbitration, which was done.

ACTIVITY FOR PEACE

The Hague, Feb. 1.—There was an unreported activity in diplomatic circles today, and it was generally believed to have had some connection with the Dutch note to Great Britain regarding peace in South Africa. The German Minister, Count von Pourtales, had a long interview with the British Minister, Sir Henry Howard; the first secretary of the British legation, A. F. G. Leveson-Gower unexpectedly started for London and the Dutch foreign minister, Baron Van Linden, had a conference with Dr. Kuyper, the Premier of The Netherlands, and subsequently had an audience of Queen Wilhelmina.
